

A BILL

To authorize personnel of the Central Intelligence Agency to carry firearms under certain circumstances.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

That Section 5(d) of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, (50 U.S.C. 403f(d)) is amended to read as follows:

"(d) Authorize, under such regulations as the Director shall prescribe, Agency personnel, while in the discharge of their official duties, to carry firearms; Provided, however: That within the United States, such official duties shall include only the protection of (i) information concerning intelligence sources and methods and classified intelligence documents and material; (ii) facilities, properties, monies and other valuable assets owned or utilized by the Agency; (iii) the Director and other Agency personnel as may be designated by the Director; and (iv) defectors and foreign persons visiting the United States under Agency auspices; and Provided further, That such duties shall include the transportation and utilization of firearms for authorized training;"
